

Community

Education Center gets new look

By Sp4 B. Bob Starr

The McNair Education Center celebrated its grand opening April 23 in their new facilities in the basement of building 882.

Maj. Gen. John W. Woodmansee, Deputy Commander, V Corps, attended the open house festivity and officially opened the center.

According to J.D. Frost, Education Services Officer, the center was relocated in January, 1982 to provide a better educational environment for brigade soldiers. Frost said the construction and renovation of the center was completed solely as a self-help project by the Education Center staff and now provides the much-needed space to centralize the McNair education program.

The Warrant Officers Association will meet on May 6, 1982 at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Club located near the intersection of Dornbusch and Platen Str.

Full service banking coming to McNair

The McNair Community Bank, operated by American Express, has announced that in the near future, members of the Hoechst sub-community will be able to enjoy full service banking.

In addition to checking and savings accounts, loans, travelers checks, and money orders, community members can now purchase foreign currency and cashier's checks in any currency, according to Thelma Martin, the bank manager. Soon, high interest Certificates of Deposit

New bus schedule

A new shuttle bus schedule for McNair will begin on May 1 featuring a new run to Mainz Kastel each Saturday.

The new schedule can be picked up at the DSCC office Room 105, building 883 or seen on unit bulletin boards.

Annual dental exam

Brigade soldiers should remember that during their birth month they are required to receive an Oral Health Maintenance Program check at the dental clinic. Family members receive their annual check at this time also. See your First Sergeant for details. Be true to your teeth, or they'll be false to you!

will also be available, she said.

Fran Gates, the bank's personal banking representative, says she will help anyone solve their financial problems and added "if someone needs financial counseling, or is interested in a group presentation, they can call me at 2315-739 or stop by the bank. We are here to provide professional banking services to the Hoechst Community - and enjoy doing it", Martin said.