Train rides offered - free

Free military duty trains run regularly to Berlin and Bremerhaven. Active duty military personnel, DoD civilians and dependents can ride these trains, even while off duty.

Reservations for either train should be made exactly six weeks in advance.

For schedule information call: Berlin (FM 2311) 5744; Bremerhaven (FM 2311) 5159.

Border tours

East/West German border tours are now available to brigade soldiers. Tours must have at least 26 soldiers and unit must provide the transportation. If you're interested see your First Sergeant.

New banking hours

The McNair community bank is now open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

Passports are a must for some countries

22nd Signal Brigade soldier, Sp4. Joe Jones and his wife Mary are excited. Tomorrow is the big day, their long awaited and hard-earned vacation to Sweden had finally arrived.

"Let's see," Joe says, "We've got our travel folders and plane tickets, our clothes are packed, here's the I.D. Cards, my leave form and we have changed our dollars into Kroner's. Yes, we're all ready for the time of our life,

Getting out ?

Getting out of the army soon? Think about this. U.S. Army recruiters last month reported they have a waiting list of more than 90,000 men and women who want to come in and join us. Better think twice.

Estate claim

The estate of Sp4. Daniel L. Mount, 512-74-8798, is now being settled. Anyone with claims against this estate must see 1st. Lt. Kathleen Gerstein, ext. 2315-608.

we're all set." Wrong Joe! You forgot your passport. "Not so," Joe snaps back, "Everyone knows all you need is an I.D. Card and DA 31, right?" Wrong again Joe, there are numerous countries along with Sweden that require U.S. military members and their families to possess passports before entering their country. The best way to know for sure is to check the updated version of AR 600-290 and USAREUR Supplement 1
