Letters to Editor disgust this reader

TO THE EDITOR

I am writing to express my disgust at two "Letters to the Editor" that appeared in the July issue of the FIVE by FIVE.

"Mr. NCO gets a tough-talking letter" and "Thanks - for nothing" are the most blatant examples of non-professionalism I have seen displayed in my sixteen months in the United States Army.

Why should the Brigade's newspaper be used as a tool to wage personal vendettas? What ever happened to the good old chain-of-command that lower enlisted soldiers are constantly told to use?

Set the example NCOs. Our eyes and ears are on you.

Equal Opportunity NCO bids final farewell

TO THE EDITOR

I want to travel as far as I can go, I want to reach the joy that's in my soul. And change the limitations that I know, and feel my mind and spirit grow. I want to live, exist, "to be", and hear the truths inside of me.

I tried to defend everyone's right to "say", but beyond that, I tried to defend other's right to "be".

Anytime we act for change, we must expect retaliation from those who oppose us.

Although my leaving the 22nd Signal

Brigade is imminent, I pledge my continued support of Equal Opportunity and wish all of you good luck and Godspeed.
