

The way I see it

By Jim Koenig

"The way you see it"

Yesterday I saw a Specialist Four reading the FIVE by FIVE and asked him what he thought of the paper. In my ever expanding egotistical fantasy I expected him to say, "This is the most fantastic piece of journalism I've ever seen, a really great newspaper." But he didn't.

It was evident he didn't know I was the editor because he looked me straight in the eye and said, "I don't like anything about it."

After picking myself off the floor, catching my breath and wiping the tears from my eyes, I asked, "why?"

The junior soldier said, "Well, there's nothing in it I can use, I want to know about education and the brigade softball standings." I said, "This is your lucky day, on page four you'll find a story on education and the standings are on this months sports page."

I guess the point in all of this is we can't please everyone, but we want to try. The FIVE by FIVE is everyone's paper. If theres something you want to see or don't want to see - tell us; give us a call (2315-656) or send us a note.

We want to know the way you see it.

The new Brigade patch is on sale now

The new 22nd Signal Brigade unit patch (full color) is on sale at the Clothing Sale Store at the Frankfurt shopping center.

A limited amount of subdued patches were received by the brigade and were issued to the 1982 Nijmegen marching team, brigade officials said.
