

— Community news —

CFC "Let the sunshine in" campaign is off and running

The 1983 Combined Federal Campaign is off and running and continues until Nov. 19.

"Let the sunshine in" is this year's theme and reflects the aim of a wide range of health, welfare, morale, communications, recreation and youth services, according to Capt. James Lullen CFC project officer.

Lullen said the CFC wanted to collect at least $120,000 last year but that amount was surpassed by $74,000.

McNair Chapel has source for Christmas gifts

Looking for some sources of religious Christmas gifts? The McNair chapel has current religious supply catalogs from several major suppliers in the states available for use. The average ordering time and receipt is about three weeks from the states. Bibles, books, plaques, records, and display items are available through these suppliers. Both Protestant and Catholic catalogs are available. Stop by and browse through them if you are interested.

Prayer breakfast

There will be a Brigade Prayer Breakfast on December 2, at 6:30 a.m., sponsored by the 32nd Signal Battalion. Mr. Bobby Michaels will be presenting an excellent concert of religious music selections as well as pop songs in the 32nd dining facility.

Your blood is needed on November 17

An Armed Forces Blood Drive will be conducted in the Frankfurt Military Community on November 16 from 9 a.m.- 3 p.m. Donations under this program provide whole blood and plasma to hospitals in USAREUR. It is essential that soldiers replace blood used by other soldiers and families in this community. For more information contact your unit Sergeant Major or CSM Price.

32nd Signal Battalion welcomes Chaplain Hardeman

The 32nd Signal Battalion welcomed Chaplain (Capt.) Leslie Hardeman on October 17. Chaplain Hardeman will be taking the responsibilities of battalion chaplain for the 32d Signal Battalion. He comes from Fort Polk, LA.

Once on board Chaplain Hardeman will be available to give religious counseling to 32nd soldiers and their families.

The former enlisted man will also give guidance to soldiers in the 533rd CEWI.

Volunteer

American
Red Cross

Together, we can change things.

American Red Cross logo: a small square with a cross inside.